Remarkable Story

The story of Mrs. Matilda Warwick, of Kokomo, Ind., as told below, proves the curative properties of that well-known female remedy, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. Warwick says:

It Will Help You

"I suffered from pains in my head, shoulders, limbs, side, stomach low down, dizziness, chills, ner-Vousness, fainting spells and other female troubles.
I was almost dead. Three doctors did not help me.
At last, I took Cardui, and with the first bottle obtained relief. Now I am cured. But for Cardui, I would have been dead." Try Cardui.

JILIS BLIND MAN.

The issuing of a marriage license to two men for the same woman, the refural of the woman to have one of the men, notwithstanding the fact that the preacher was at the house ready to perform the ceremony, and the intention of the rejected suitor to have the woman sued for breach of promise has furnished Dover, Del., with a sensation.

James A Reynolds, a blind man of about 40 years, supposed he had suffi-ciently wooed and secured the hand of Miss Clara Eveline Russell, of that town, to warrant a marriage. In fact a'l the plans were made, he says, for the wedding on Sunday evening last, the preacher, the Rev. J. A. Buckson, paster of Armory Methodist Episcopal Church, having been engaged to tie the knot

The brida-to be was preparing herself in an upper room for the ceremony, and while on her way downstairs suddenly changed her mind about marrying Reynoids. Reynolds was called upstairs and informed that the wedding would not take place. The preacher, who had a meeting to a tend at his church, left the house with the license, thinking, perhaps, that the pair would change their minds that the wedding would eventually take place, but such was not the case.

Monday, November 30, Miss Russell, accompanied by James C. Saulsbury, giving his residence as Cheswold, visited he office of Cierk of the Court S. W. Darby, and asked for a license to get married, which was granted.

Reynolds, when apprised of the actions and intentions of his expected bride, at once appeared before a magistrate there and endeavored to bring suit for breach of promise. He was informed by the magistrate that in order to bring proceedings of that kind he would have to bring suit in the Superior Court. The chances are, however, that Reynolds will content himself with his present condition and crase to worry longer over the matter unless it be the loss of the $2 50 for the marriage license too hastily

Millions of Lives Lost.

The Awful Toll Collected by Consumption.

If people could only understand the Cateria is an internal serofula—that nothing applied externally does much good—they would not need to be warned so often about this fital disease, which, when neglected, invariably ends up in Consumption, at the cost of millions of lives every year. Yel Cateria is easily cured if the right treatment is easily cured if the right treatment is easily cured.

Catarh is caused by germs in the blood chich circulate throughout the entire system. Extending the effects are often seen in tem. Ext-rnal remedies give but temporary ease. Although the effects are often seen in the form of pimples, rash, eezema or dry scaly skin, the trouble is internal, and can never be cured by external remedies. The only way to cure Catarrh is by employing a medicine which is labsorbed and carried by the blood to all parts of the aystem so that the mucous membrane or internal lining of the body is thoroughly medicated, soothed, disinfected of germ matter, and the soreness bedied.

We have a remedy prepared from the prescription of a physician who for thirty years studied and made Catarrh a specialty and whose record of success was a cured in every case where his treatment was followed as precribed. That remedy is Rexall Mucu-Tone. We are so positive that it will care Catarrh in all its various forms, whether acute or chronic, that we promise to return every renny paid as for medicine in every case where it fails to cure or for any reason des not satisfy the user.

We want you to try Rexall Mucu-Tone on our recommendation and guarantee. We are right here where you live, and you do not contract any obligation or risk when you try Fexall Mucu-Tone on our guarantee. We have Rexall Mucu-Tone in two sizes. The prices are 50c. and $1. Very off in the 50c, size effects a cure. Of course, in chronic cases a longer freetment is neces ary. The axe age in such instances is three $100 bottles. W. P. Taylor, 616 King street,

Can you believe your senses? When two of them, teste and smell, having been impaired if not uttely destroyed, by Nasal Catarth, are fully restored by Ely's Cream Balm, can you doubt that this remedy deserves all that has been said of it by the thousands who have used it? It is applied directly to the affected air passages and begins its healing work at once. Why not get it today?
